Detailed description of material and/or information to be collected or studied, and your intended purpose.
(Attach additional sheets if necessary.)

I acknowledge that I am collecting material and/or information from state land. I acknowledge that the State of Utah is entitled to receive appropriate value for the resources on state lands, should any economic value be derived from (1) the act of bioprospecting, (2) a microorganism, plant or fungus removed from sovereign land, and/or (3) information concerning the microorganism’s, plant’s or fungus’ physical or genetic properties. I agree to negotiate in good faith with the State if the State asserts an economic interest in my activities under this registration.

*Registrant's are required to record GPS coordinates of the sites where samples are gathered and provide those coordinates to the Division and include those coordinates in any publications resulting from the bio-prospecting.

A person who engages in an act of bioprospecting in violation of Utah State Code 65A-14 is guilty of criminal trespass punishable in accordance with Section 76-6-206.

THIS FORM DOES NOT CONSTITUTE RIGHT TO ACCESS PROPERTY
YOU MUST OBTAIN PERMISSION FROM LAND OWNER

Title: ___________________________

NOTE: A non-refundable registration fee of $50 must accompany this form. Registration expires June 30 of every year; continuing activities will require submission of a registration form and registration fee for the new year.
Claim of Business Confidentiality

Any person who provides to the Division of Forestry, Fire and State Lands an application (or information contained in any record) that he or she believes should be protected under UCA Subsection 63G-2-305 or 63G-2-309 shall provide with the application a written claim of business confidentiality and a concise statement of reasons supporting the claim of business confidentiality. If you claim that the information herein submitted is confidential, please check the applicable box and print or type a concise statement of the reasons supporting the claim of business confidentiality in the space provided below.

☐ Trade secrets – If the submitted information includes a formula, pattern, compilation, program, device, method, technique, or process that has actual or potential value by its non-disclosure to the general public, and is the subject of efforts that are reasonable under the circumstances to maintain its secrecy.

☐ Commercial information or nonindividual financial information – If the submitted information contains commercial information or nonindividual financial information which may result in unfair competitive injury to the person submitting the information, or would impair the ability of the Division to obtain necessary information in the future, and the person submitting the information has a greater interest in prohibiting access than the public in obtaining access.
